From Fr Charles:

Archdeacon Christine Froude

The farewell service to celebrate the ministry of 'The Venerable Christine Froude, Archdeacon of Malmesbury, will take place (at Malmesbury) next Saturday (22 September). Andrew Morgan and Fr Charles will be present to represent this parish – the Abbey seating is rather limited (!) so it's 'a ticket only do'.

Archdeacon Christine, in her ministry, has had an extraordinarily significant impact on this diocese. She has blended real pastoral strength with the wisdom to navigate through what is often choppy church water, and she has the ability to be firm when required and yet know that whilst rules are rules most issues can be solved through intelligent and respectful dialogue. Her ministry in the diocese will be missed.

Christine has also been a real friend to All Saints, she has stood alongside us over a number of years in which there have been vacancies and other changes that have had some impact on us. She also has the distinction of being the first woman priest to be Principal Celebrant at the ASC High Altar.

We wish Christine and David all the very best in retirement and look forward to seeing them in the not-to-distant future.

Canon Professor Mark Chapman

Fr Mark is a very distinguished Oxford academic, teaching modern church history and theology. He is also the author of numerous books and journal papers.

We are really fortunate in having him deliver the final 150th Anniversary presentation on Saturday 29 September (at 4.00pm). His subject is 'Catholic Renewal Lives On'. Please make a note in your diaries as this will be excellent in both content and performance.

Interestingly this theme, and the timing of it, resonates with two major international conferences on the impact of the exploration of the catholic roots in the Anglican Communion. One Conference is taking place in Boston MA, during All Saintside and the other in London (this last week - September 18-20). Both conferences emphasise the significance of mission and evangelism, the place of the spiritual dimension and our engagement with communities.

I'm pleased to say that Fr Mark will stay over to be with us on Sunday 30 September to preach and celebrate at Parish Mass.

Food for Hungry Boys October 18th

On Thursday Oct 18th, in conjunction with the Prayer Book Society, we shall be hosting the Schola Cantorum of Tewkesbury Abbey. They will sing Evensong for the Feast of St Luke using the words and format of the 1662 book of Common Prayer.

The service will be at 5.30pm, preceded at 3 o'clock by a talk on the history of All Saints by Professor Gillian Clark, and at 3.45 by a talk and illustrative short recital on the organ with John Davenport, Jonathan Price and Eric Tyson.

Tea and Cake will be provided for attendees between the talks and the service, but most importantly we need to feed the boy choristers, who apparently sing better on a full tum.

If you are able to help by providing/and or serving some sandwiches or cake or other tea-time treat for the (approximately twelve) boys, please sign up on the notice in the porch. All contributions will be most gratefully received.

Open Doors Day

A huge thank you to all who made this day such a success. A great exhibition with lots of interesting information, great cakes and great stewarding.

£180 profit from the sale of refreshments to go to our harvest charity, The Sisters of the Church.

The August Soup Run

Each year All Saints provides a Saturday Soup Run for the Homeless during August.

This is a vital support for those people experiencing homelessness which relies on the kindness of everyone to help in a small way.

This year the soup run was organized by Jane and Eric Tyson and well supported by members of the congregation who prepared food, provided transport and gave up their Saturday morning to feed hungry people in Bristol.

A huge vote of thanks goes to everyone involved in making the Soup Run such a success and providing people on the streets of Bristol with both the food and positive human contact that is so important to those without a home.
